Education Partnerships, Inc. (EPI) was an exhibitor at the Public Relations Society of America National Conference 2011 international conference held October 15–18, 2011, in Orlando, Florida.

“Participating in this year’s conference was an excellent opportunity for our EPI team to network with counterparts from international companies and to learn their perspective on shared global issues,” said Jim Hoffmann, EPI’s president and CEO.

“The conference’s theme — IMAGINE. CREATE. INSPIRE. — provided a great backdrop for us to network and discuss not only EPI’s vision, mission and case studies with hundreds of public relations professionals,” Hoffmann added. “We also were able to discuss resources and tools that help community relation programs maximize resources and create innovative solutions to their community needs.”
